

media release

8th September 2009

The first RELAY store in Singapore is launched

Lagardère Services is pleased to announce the opening of the first Relay store in Singapore, located at Changi International Airport.

Relay is known to travellers all over the globe, being the largest international network of travel retail stores – with more than 1,200 stores in more than 15 countries across Europe, North America, and Asia Pacific. With a wide selection of books, magazines, and a range of traveller convenience, every Relay store is a window into the world of information and entertainment.

The new 215 sqm Relay store in Singapore opened this week, and is located airside in Terminal 3 at the Airport. Two more Relay stores are scheduled to open in Terminal 1 at Changi Airport in December 2009 and April 2011 following completed phases of the terminal redevelopment.

Lagardère Services is excited to bring the international brand Relay to Singapore and to continue partnering with the Changi Airport Group – in bringing global brands to airport travellers.

With over 4,000 stores located in countries across the globe, Lagardère Services operates the world's largest network of cultural leisure retail stores. Locally, Lagardère Services Asia Pacific operates 17 stores at Changi Airport and manages more than 130 stores throughout the Asia Pacific in Hong Kong, Taiwan, China and Australia.

contact

Scott Raisin, Chief Executive Officer
Telephone:
 Australia +61 2 8218 1199
 Hong Kong +852 3769 7499
 Singapore +65 6593 1799
Email: scott.raisin@lsaspac.com